From: Ribera del Duero: A Shifting Frontier for Spanish Wine (Nov 2023)

The 2020 Milsetentayseis is a red field blend primarily made from Tempranillo, sourced from high-altitude vineyards in Fuentenebro, Ribera del Duero. Aged for 18 months in oak barrels, it appears garnet in color. The intense nose reveals cherry, sour cherry, plum, dried flower and wild herb notes. Dry and rich, the somewhat chalky mouthfeel and calibrated acidity lead to a mid-juicy, lasting palate. This is a modern expression of Ribera.
